To: Interested Alabamians at Law Schools

From: Dawn Hathcock, Executive Director

Subject: Cabaniss, Johnston Scholarship

The Cabaniss, Johnston Scholarship is awarded annually to a law student who is a resident of Alabama, is attending an accredited law school in the United States and will be a second year student. The scholarship will cover tuition and books for the second year of law school to a maximum of $5,000. A second place scholarship of $1,000 will be awarded at the committee's discretion. While academic achievement is the key factor in determining eligibility for the scholarship; consideration will be given to other factors such as conscientiousness, dependability, civic involvement, financial need and dedication to the highest ethical standards.

I would appreciate your notifying any eligible students and encouraging them to apply. The application can be filled out through an online portal on our web site, which is www.alabamalawfoundation.org under the Scholarships section of the site. Applications for the 2024-2025 school year will be available from April 25 through June 6, 2024.

Do not hesitate to email dmckee@alabamalawfoundation.org should you have any questions. Thank you.
