

2024-25 ACADEMIC PARTNER PROGRAM BENEFITS GUIDE

Thank you for joining the Academic Partnership Program of the American Society of International Law (ASIL). This Partnership combines recognition, participation, promotion, education, and access to ASIL's worldwide community of international law professionals into one convenient package—fully available during your school's tenure as a Partner—described below.

1) MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

ASIL members receive full online access – including all archived content – to ASIL's four flagship publications: the world-renowned American Journal of International Law; the timely International Legal Materials; the Society's Annual Meeting Proceedings; and the Society's Quarterly ASIL Newsletter. For additional benefits, visit: asil.org/partners.

a. Students

- Enrolled students are eligible for free ASIL Student Membership, renewable annually.
- Visit asil.org/students, click on "JOIN ASIL" and follow instructions. Students MUST use their school assigned email address.

b. Faculty and Staff

- One (1) Law Librarian (designated by your school) is eligible to receive a free ASIL Regular Membership, renewable annually. BONUS: First time Academic Partners may claim one (1) one-year free ASIL Regular Membership for a designated staff or faculty member. Contact partnerships@asil.org to claim these benefits.
- Other school faculty and staff receive a 50% discount on ASIL Regular Membership, renewable annually. Visit asil.org/membership, click "JOIN ASIL" and use code ASILACAPART when prompted. This code may also be used when renewing an existing membership.

2) CAREER & TEACHING RESOURCES

ASIL offers the following career development resources for students, faculty, and staff for its Academic Partners.

Please contact Brita Jelen at bjelen@asil.org to schedule one of the following available sessions:

- 90-minute in-person or live webinar (depending on location) for J.D. and/or LL.M students about how to pursue an international law career in today's legal market with ASIL's professional staff.
- 90-minute training session for your career services team (in-person or online depending on location), as well as any interested faculty or staff, on advising students interested in pursuing an international law position with ASIL's professional staff.
- Don't miss the 90-MINUTE LIVE WEBINAR asil.org/zoom Tuesday, September 24, 2024, 3:00-4:30pm ET (12:00-1:30pm PT).

3) PROMOTIONAL BENEFITS

- Recognition in the quarterly American Journal of International Law and ASIL's Annual Report.
Recognition on our website asil.org/academicpartner as a 2024-25 Academic Partner, including a link to your website.
- Recognition as an Academic Partner at the ASIL Annual Meeting and the Midyear Meeting.
- Opportunity to display at the ASIL Annual Meeting.

4) EVENT BENEFITS

- ASIL Midyear Meeting (Practitioners' & Research Forum) asil.org/mym
Chicago, Illinois - November 14-16, 2024

As part of your partnership with ASIL, graduate students, early career scholars and faculty at your institution have the following benefits for the ASIL Midyear Meeting (subject to application deadlines communicated directly with your institution):

- » Unlimited Free Student registrations, including public receptions.
- » Opportunity for graduate or law students and early career scholars to submit papers for the David D. Caron Prize at the Research Forum.
- » Opportunity for graduate or law students and early career scholars to present unpublished scholarly papers on international or transnational law.
- » Opportunity for faculty to volunteer as discussants and commentators during the Research Forum.

Registration will open at asil.org/mym in early September.

- ASIL Annual Meeting asil.org/am
Washington, DC - April 16-18, 2025

As part of your partnership with ASIL, your institution receives the following benefits for the Annual Meeting:

- » Five (5) complimentary Student registrations, including public receptions;
- » Discounted Student group-rate registrations for ten or more additional students above the 5 free registrations, including public receptions. Discounted student group rate would be $62.50 instead of $125;
- » Access to a dedicated track of mentoring and professional development programs;
- » One (1) complimentary faculty or staff registration, including public receptions;
- » Recognition as an Academic Partner on Annual Meeting promotional materials, announcements, signage, program, and mobile app.
- » Shared table in the Exhibit Hall with other Academic Partners where you can showcase your institutional programs and display promotional items.
- » Additional opportunity to promote your programs through the ASIL Annual Meeting website or app.
- » Opportunity to sponsor and organize a panel (50% discount for holding an onsite event).

Registration will open at asil.org/am in January 2025. For questions regarding group registrations or other partner-related issues, please contact partnerships@asil.org.

- Option to have ASIL co-sponsor and publicize your school's events on international legal issues.
 - » Note: ASIL does not provide financial support for co-sponsored events. Co-sponsorship includes in-kind hosting and promotion of events.
- Option to host your international legal event or reception at ASIL's Tillar House headquarters.
 - » Note: Use of space is based on availability; ASIL's in-house event calendar and available hotel space fill up fast. ASIL co-sponsorship required. A small, discounted rental fee for use of hotel space applies.
